

Progress the game, so everyone can share in its heritage and possibilities.

As part of the AFL's diversity strategy, AFL NSW/ACT's Multicultural and Indigenous Programs aids people from culturally and linguistically diverse (CaLD) and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander (ATSI) backgrounds that are financially disadvantaged to get involved in Australian football, where the cost of participating is prohibitive. The criteria below define player eligibility.

To apply for the Player Subsidy, participants must meet the following criteria:

- Players must be Multicultural or Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander – see definition for multicultural below.
- Players must be aged between 5-18 years.
- Players must be registered in Club Football (NSW/ACT)
- Subsidy application forms plus letters of support must be submitted by a Club Representative.
- Subsidy application forms must be submitted by May 31.

Multicultural Definition

Multicultural is defined as a player with a parent born overseas in a non-English speaking country.

Financially Disadvantaged

The AFL NSW/ACT defines financially disadvantaged as:

- Parent/Guardians who receive government benefits.
- Low-income earners

Consideration will be given to other circumstances on a case-by-case basis.
